INTRODUCTION.

THE Middleborough Public Library was established by vote of the town September 19th, 1874, and was opened to the public September 27th, 1875. There are now upon its shelves about 2000 volumes.

The Catalogue herewith presented forms a complete alphabetical list of all the books in the Library, which are arranged for circulation. Every book is entered once under the author's name, when known, once under a prominent word of the title, and in some instances under the subject treated in the book. With a few exceptions, the date of publication and size of book are given only with the author's name.

Persons applying for books from the Library will please call for them by the numbers as given in the Catalogue, which include the alcove and shelf number, and the number of the book on the shelf. When there is more than one volume in the set they will please specify which volume is desired.

Friends of the Library will confer a favor if they will report to the Librarian any error they may notice in the titles, names of authors, or numbers of the books.

Adopted by vote of the Town at the Annual March Meeting, 1875.

PREAMBLE.

CHAPTER II.

USE OF THE LIBRARY.

SEC. 1. The Library shall be open for the use and delivery of books at such times as the Library Committee shall designate, due notice of which shall be given.

SEC. 2. All inhabitants of the town of Middleboro' above the age of 18 years, who shall sign an obligation to observe all the rules and regulations of the Library, shall be entitled to take books therefrom so long as they shall comply with the same. But if the applicant for books be unknown to the Librarian, that officer shall require a certificate from some responsible person that the applicant is a suitable person to receive books. A deposit to the full value of the volume called for, or of the set to which it belongs, may take the place of such certificate.

SEC. 3. Resident minors, under 18 years of age, may be allowed the privileges of the Library by filing a certificate signed by the parent or guardian, or other responsible person, by which the signer shall become to the same extent responsible for said minor as he would be for himself.

SEC. 4. Every person entitled to take books from the Library shall receive from the Librarian a printed card, having on it the name of the applicant, also the number of each book taken, and date of delivery; and this card must be presented to the Librarian as the method of obtaining any book that may be wanted. Printed slips will be furnished upon which to enter the numbers of books desired.

SEC. 5. No person shall be allowed more than one volume at one time. Books taken from the Library may be kept fourteen days; provided, that any book may be retaken once by the same person, unless an application for the same has been made in writing. The Library Committee may specify a shorter or a longer time for keeping out particular books, which time shall be named on the cover. The fine for the retention of any volume beyond the time specified shall be two cents for every day it is so retained.

SEC. 6. Any book retained two weeks beyond the time prescribed by the regulations shall be sent for by the Librarian, and the expense incurred in obtaining it shall be paid by the person so retaining it.

SEC. 7. Any book not returned within one week after demand is made for it by the Librarian, shall be regarded as lost. All losses and all injuries to books beyond reasonable wear shall be made good, to the satisfaction of the Library Committee, by the person liable.

SEC. 8. There shall be an annual examination of the Library on or before the last Friday in January. All books are required to be returned to the Library fourteen days before the annual examination, under penalty of a fine of one dollar. SEC. 10. Books of reference, and those not intended for general circulation, shall not be loaned except by an order signed by at least one of the Trustees.

SEC. 11. All visitors to the Library Room will be required to demean themselves quietly, and to avoid all unnecessary conversation; and any persons abusing the privileges of the Library by improper or offensive conduct, shall be denied admission to the rooms.

CHAPTER III.
